Course Policies

Plagiarism:

The work that you present in this (or any other) class must be your own. Presenting the ideas – the words, expressions or concepts - of others without citing the source of those ideas is plagiarism. A student who fails to credit the source of an idea is violating the intellectual property rights of the original author. This applies to all work submitted - including but not limited to papers, case studies and discussion board postings. The minimum penalty for plagiarism is a grade of zero for the assignment; the maximum penalty is expulsion from Mary Baldwin University.

Responding to Disruptive Student Behavior:

Mary Baldwin University is dedicated to the free pursuit of knowledge, and courses are designed and governed by the faculty in various ways to promote learning. The classroom ethos that instructors seek is both open to dissenting opinions and respectful of all members of the campus community. To that end, every instructor has the right and responsibility to maintain classroom order, and students, in adherence to the Mary Baldwin University Code of Conduct, are required to follow course policies and instructions regarding class behavior. Instructors may elect to hold students who engage in disruptive behavior accountable, in accordance with the published university policies and procedures.

Students with Disabilities

Mary Baldwin University is sensitive to the needs of students with disabilities who are academically qualified and is committed to providing appropriate support. The college does not waive requirements for degrees or alter admissions requirements for any student, but we make every effort to accommodate students with identified and documented disabilities. Accommodations are available to students with disabilities that are available at <http://www.marybaldwin.edu/learning-skills/swd/> and

Paper Format:

For courses in the business program, the citation format follows that of the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th edition; the section on general academic writing should be followed. A description of the format may be found at the Owl at Purdue at: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/> A sample research paper in APA format is also available on the Owl at Purdue website at: https://owl.english.purdue.edu/media/pdf/20090212013008_560.pdf

Attendance:

Participation is an essential part of learning in this program. Participation (both the initial and subsequent interaction) within the discussion groups is required in the week in which the discussions are posted and active. If you will not be able to attend a weekly discussion because of a planned activity, e.g., business travel, contact your professor at least one week in advance of your absence. If you were not able to attend a weekly discussion due to unforeseen circumstances, advise your professor at your earliest opportunity. Multiple absences from any one or more than one class may jeopardize your standing in the program.

Late Assignments:

Classes require regular and timely participation. Late assignments will be penalized by 5% for every 24 hours past the due date. Assignments more than seven days late will not be accepted. Due dates/times are set at Eastern Time. Any variance from this policy must be acknowledged by the Professor by email to the student. There are no alternate dates available for missed Discussion Group assignments.

Honor Code:

Mary Baldwin students pledge to uphold the Honor Code. They pledge to refrain from cheating on assignments, papers and tests, to refrain from plagiarism, and always to be honest in their dealings with faculty, staff and other students. To maintain the integrity of the system, students, faculty and staff who witness Honor Code infractions are expected to report them.

Should I become aware of an Honor Code offense in this classroom, I will encourage the student(s) to self-report by e-mailing the Honor Council chairwoman or by filing an incident report at <https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?MaryBaldwin>. If the student(s) does not self-report within 24 hours, I will submit the report myself.

If the Honor Code offense is related to a course assignment, the assignment will not receive an official grade until the Honor Council investigation (and, if necessary, hearing) is complete. I will not assess a grade penalty for an Honor Code infraction unless a student is found responsible by (or admits responsibility to) the Honor Council.
